Jessica Martel
Memorial Foundation

The Jessica Martel Memorial Foundation was established on January 15, 2012, in memory of Jessica Martel, a 26-year old mother of three young children who was murdered by her spouse in Morinville, AB. With a vision to bring safety and hope to vulnerable individuals and families, the JMMF set out to educate the community about family violence, provide outreach support to individuals living with violence at home and to raise funds for Jessie's House, the first emergency shelter to serve the Sturgeon Region and City of St. Albert.

In September 2018, the JMMF broke ground on Jessie's House- a safe house for those fleeing domestic violence and in need of shelter from their abuser. The 9000 sq. ft. home is expected to be ready for clients in the spring of 2020 and will serve 30-35 individuals with their children. Jessie's House is unique in its design, housing three family suites and one self-contained suite. Jessie's House is also only one of three shelters in Alberta that will serve individuals, of any age or gender, in need of support and the first to serve the Sturgeon Region and City of St. Albert.

Why Jessie's House?

"My daughter, Jessica Ryan Martel, was murdered by her common-law husband April 29, 2009 because she had no safe place to go to protect herself and her three young children from an abusive partner. The creation of Jessie's House, ten years in the making, is her family's and her community's response."

Jessie's House also stands as a reminder to the incredible power of community. A grassroots movement, the project is the result of family, friends and community uniting to raise money for a needed community resource. To date, nearly all of the $1.6 Million raised to complete this $3 Million project has been raised by volunteers, community groups, local business and corporations.

With the finish line within sight, the JMMF still has much work to do. Janice Isberg, JMMF Executive Director said, "The ongoing support of community to raise the final $1.4 million is critical. We listen to our supporters and are doing everything we can to engage them. Our newest fundraiser is the latest example of that."

On November 16, 2019 the JMMF is hosting a Country Cabaret at Lily Lake Resort. The Country Cabaret will be an unforgettable evening of great food, great fun and great entertainment featuring Canadian Country Music Award winning artist, Jason Benoit. In addition to this fundraiser, community can expect to see an upcoming event at The Bourbon Room in St. Albert, as well as our Annual Break Free Gala, which has been moved to April 25th, 2020. The JMMF also encourages community to get involved in fundraising, by hosting their own fundraiser or donating directly.
